Boy: I'm doing a history project on Venice. I looked online and found some interesting information.

Girl: What kind of information?

Boy: Did you know that Venice is a very old city?

Girl: Yes, I did. But I don't know how old it is.

Boy: It's more than 1,500 years old. Some people think it even started as a Roman city.

Girl: Isn't Venice a city on water?

Boy: Yes, it is. You can walk around it or ride on gondolas along the canals.

Girl: Oh yes. Gondolas are those boats for tourists.

Boy: They are now, yes. But in the past, they were used for public transportation. Everybody rode on gondolas to get around the city for work, business and visits.

Girl: So were there lots of gondolas?

Boy: Yes, there were. There were about 10,000 gondolas in the eighteenth century.

Girl: That's amazing! How many are there today?

Boy: Only about 500.

Suzy: This diary is very old. It was Uncle Gordon's grandpa's. His name was John Hammond and he was a doctor.

Oh no! John was on the Titanic! It sank! What happened to him?

Today, we left Southampton on this beautiful ship. There were many people at the port to see us off. It was amazing. After we left the port, I looked for my cabin. It is very nice and comfortable. I put my luggage on the bed and left the cabin. Now, I am on the deck and looking out to sea.

April 12, 1912

I met three other passengers yesterday and we became friends. We had dinner together and then we played cards all evening. Did I win? No, I didn't! But it was fun.

Something terrible happened! The ship hit an iceberg 10 minutes ago. Now, I am very scared ...

January 1, 1913

I am starting my diary again. I didn't write in it for eight months because I was on the Titanic. It sank that awful night in April. I was lucky I got into a lifeboat. I survived, but many people died.

I didn't know what to do with my life for many months. I was sad and shocked. But on Christmas, I decided to stay in America. I had a return ticket for England, but I didn't use it. I want to become a doctor and save people's lives.
