SOUTH FOR THE WINTER

Escape

- 1) Write answers to the questions on the worksheet
- 2) Send the completed worksheet back to me next week. We will give you instructions of how to do this on Monday

Worksheet

One of the themes of the story “South for the Winter” is the idea of escape (v). The protagonist is travelling and working around Europe, sometimes people might think that this way of living is a form of escapism (n).

You’re now spending a lot of time at home, and you might be thinking about the virus and things that are making you sad.

1) What movie helps you think about other things and lets you escape these scary times?

2) Why do you like the movie, and how does it help you escape your everyday thoughts?

3) Who is the main character or characters in the movie, describe them and say why you like or dislike them.
